The SBA is proud to have earned an A+ for our FY 20 Small Business Procurement Scorecard as it navigated through these unprecedented times. In spite of the challenges faced the SBA Acquisition workforce remained determined to ensuring the small business community was provided opportunities to perform on a broad range of requirements, including those critical to supporting the economic recovery of the small business community through the effects of COVID-19. The SBA will continue to work with the small business community and our large business prime contractors to strengthen its subcontracting program across all socio-economic categories.
